

TransitionPLUS

Services for young adults ages 21-25+

Seamless supports from classroom to career

Inroads TransitionPLUS serves individuals with disabilities between the ages of 21-25 that are interested in pre-vocational training by providing consistent and structured professional support to help them navigate the challenges that often arise due to their disabilities.

Our program gives young adults a place to access assessments, career and independent living skills, self-advocacy training, job coaching, volunteer experience, case management, building friendships and networking with peers.

TransitionPLUS Services include:

- Vocational skills for employment readiness
- Evaluation of work readiness, supported employment and career planning
- Community integration experiences
- Resume boosting work opportunities
- Independent living skills development
- Leisure interest skills
- Social skill development

✓ 12 Units per day of Pre-Voc
✓ 12 Units per day of Day-Hab

Young adults may be eligible for this program through the NJ Division of Developmental Disabilities. Inroads is accessible by Paratransit, Access Link, public transportation and just off the Garden State Parkway.
